Welcome to Russian Way Film Studio, Russia Abroad International Film Festival and Russian Way Film Society! The Russian Way Film Studio has been established in 2005 as a part of the large cultural center “Russia Abroad House”, bearing the name of its founder Alexander Isaevitch Solzhenitsyn. Ever since, the studio has been successfully collecting, cataloguing, and popularizing the multimedia heritage of Russia Abroad. The studio’s archive of audio-visual material has so far grown to more than 1200 items. Also, from November 2005, every one or two weeks, the Russian Way Film Society holds screenings of documentaries and feature films by the best Russian directors that for one reason or another cannot find their way to movie theaters or television. From 2007 onwards the Solzhenitsyn Russia Abroad House together with the Russian Way Film Studio has organized major international events, such as Russia Abroad Film Festival – the first Russian cinematographic forum ever to be focused on the triumph and tragedy of exile and the lives of the Russians abroad. The main goal of the event is to assist the process of unification of Russian Diasporas across the globe. In 2008, the Solzhenitsyn Russia Abroad Centre and the Russian Way Studio have established an award named after the renowned Russian actor, director and teacher Mikhail Chekhov, to be assigned to prominent representatives of Arts for the outstanding achievements in the field of cinematography and theatre worldwide. Director and Creative Director of the Russian Way Film Studio, President of the Russia Abroad International Film Festival, President of the Russian Way Film Society, Corresponding Member of the National Academy of Cinematographic Arts, Golden Eagle Award Winner, Film Director Sergei
